Do you have things you want to do in your classroom but don’t have the resources to do them? APPLY FOR A $5,000.00 Award for the Improvement of Secondary Teaching

Eligibility
Teachers practicing in middle and high schools in the state of New Mexico (grades 7–12).

Purpose
May be used for creative ideas to improve instruction! Think trans-disciplinary collaboration & projects, technology, field trips, math manipulatives, CDs, films and any other multitude of ideas you might have to increase student engagement and learning!!!

How to Apply
Send request for application information to Dr. Jamie Baker jabaker@nmsu.edu or visit http://education.nmsu.edu/student/french.html

History
The competition was established by request from Fanny and Floy French to the New Mexico State University Foundation in 1981, and is granted to the winning proposal(s) resulting from an annual competitive proposal process. Award winners receive approximately $5,000 and an opportunity to present their accomplishments at the NMSU Scholarship Awards Reception in April, 2014.

Dates
Proposals must be received by March 15, 2013 and the Award winner will be announced on April 2, 2013. The award will be presented at the Scholarship Award Reception at the Las Cruces Convention Center, April 30, 2013 at 3:30 PM. The money and project must be implemented during the 2013-2014 school year.