

NMSU's 2016-17 Fulbright U.S. Student Award winner Grace Smith Vidaurre (Uruguay)

2017 Fulbright Fellowship Workshop

"Promotion of international good will through the exchange of students in the fields of education, culture, and science." Senator J. William Fulbright

A Fulbright fellowship provides research, study, and teaching opportunities in over 140 countries.

[For more information: <https://honors.nmsu.edu/onsie-1/fulbright-fellowships/>
Shortened URL: goo.gl/UfgxjN

Have questions? Please Contact: Tim Ketelaar at Ketelaar@nmsu.edu or (575) 405-3729]

A Fulbright workshop is planned for Thursday February 23rd
Two Fulbright Selection Panelists will be on hand along with a current NMSU student winner with tips on how to submit a competitive proposal

When: Thursday, February 23rd, 4- 5 PM

Where: Conroy Honors Center, Lobby

What: Light refreshments and information for undergraduate and graduate students who wish to explore how to apply for a Fulbright Fellowship.

WORLD NMSU student Katherine Young received a 2015 Fulbright Fellowship to study dengue virus in Borneo