

Please join us May 4th as we celebrate Transnational Solidarity Day with the documentary, The Deportation of Innocence (48mins) (2016) directed by Francisco Alarcon. This film captures the story of four children and their immigrant families as they experience deportation and the effects this has had on their lives.

A Panel discussion will take place with immigration/migrant experts Rafael Alarcón Acosta, Research Professor from El Colegio de la Frontera Norte from Tijuana, Mexico; Macrina Cardenas Monteño, a volunteer at Casa del Migrante de Tijuana; and Ma. Eugenia Hernandez Sanchez, a Research Professor from the Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez.

Event is Free and open to the public

Poster session by students from the Gender and Sexuality Studies' "Women Crossing Borders" and "Women and Human Rights"

Thursday, May 4th

Las Cruces
Transnational Solidarity Day

At the Hardman-Jacobs
Undergraduate Learning
Center, HJLC rm. 225

Reception and
Poster Board Session:
5:30-6:00 PM
2nd floor of HJLC

Film Screening:
6:00-7:00 PM
HJLC rm. 225

Panel Discussion:
7:00-7:30 PM
HJLC rm. 225

Sponsored by:

Gender & Sexuality Studies

Interdisciplinary Studies

Mujeres y Hombres Activ@s
Revolucionari@s (MHAR)