NMSU to host FERPA training April 11

NMSU is sponsoring a Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) training session led by the U.S. Department of Education on April 11, 2019 at the Las Cruces Convention Center. A live/recorded webcast will also be available for those unable to attend in person.

The FERPA 101 session will provide an overview of essential regulatory requirements that apply to NMSU and provide guidance on how to stay compliant in the digital world. Furthermore, it will be scenario-based and will include a Q&A component, allowing faculty and staff to inquire about specific situations.

You are also encouraged to attend the Data Security Best Practices – IT Professionals, Faculty & Staff session from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. and the Data Breach Identification & Response and Best Practices for Vetting Cloud Services session from 1:45 to 3 p.m.

Where: Las Cruces Convention Center, Ballroom 2

When: Thursday, April 11, 2019

Time: 8:45 – 10:30 a.m. (FERPA 101)

10:45 – 11:45 a.m. (Data Security Best Practices)

1:45 – 3 p.m. (Data Breach Identification & Response and Best Practices for Vetting Cloud Services)

REGISTRATION: To register for the training, either in person or online, please visit: <https://privacy.nmsu.edu/ferpa-training/>.

If you need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me at norma@nmsu.edu or Carlos Lobato, NMSU IT Compliance Officer, at clobato@nmsu.edu.
