      Thank you madam chair and members of the board.

      We are facing some challenging times and we do so together. We are continuing to work with the Chancellor and administration to help our institution become stronger and better able to meet our mission.

      Before coming to provide our report to you today, I attended a farewell reception for a colleague and friend whose position was eliminated as a result of the recent budget reduction efforts. As employees, we all share in this effort to right-size our institution and our duty to fulfill our mission. We do so as a team even as we say goodbye to some of our colleagues that have been most directly affected by this change.
If not for the leadership of our chancellor, and his consistent message that NMSU is a caring community, we would not have this as core value from which we draw our strength in times of need. It is from this strength that we refocus our efforts on ways we can help.

In collaboration with the NMSU Bookstore and NMSU Foundation, we are sponsoring a Crimson shirt campaign to benefit the Perozynski Employee Emergency Fund and we hope to inspire more aggies to wear crimson on Friday. The Shirt drive will end September 1st and we need to sell 3 more men’s polo shirts for the campaign to reach minimal funding. An additional communication will be sent out next week when everyone is back for the fall semester.

At the next Employee Council meeting on Thursday, we will begin planning for upcoming open forums. Right now we are working closely with Human Resources to promote sessions about the upcoming Fair Labor Standards Act changes.

In addition, the NMSU Employee Appreciation picnic will be held on October 14th on the Horseshoe from 11 AM – 1 PM.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank members of employee council for their dedication in serving on dozens of committees across the university and for doing their part to make NMSU a great place to work.

I would also like to thank NMSU administration, including Chancellor Carruthers and his staff, Executive Vice President and Provost Dan Howard and his staff, and Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance, Angela Throneberry and her staff for their unresented transparency and willingness to not only listen to the concerns of employees, but to show genuine empathy and to make change happen.

Thank you madam chair and members of the board. With that I conclude my report and stand for any questions that you may have.
