

William R. Gould

Professor

University Statistics Center and Department of Economics

New Mexico State University

P.O. Box 30001

Las Cruces, NM 88003-8001

Office: (505) 646-3986

Email: wgould@nmsu.edu

Website: business.nmsu.edu/facultystaff/estat/gould.html

Education

1994 Ph.D. Biomathematics, North Carolina State University

1990 Master of Statistics, North Carolina State University

1988 B.S. Math Science, Clemson University

Professional Experience

2006-2001 President, BIOTASTAT, Inc. Scientific and Statistical Consulting

2005-Present Professor (2006), Associate Professor (2000), Assistant Professor (1994).
Experimental Statistics Program/University Statistics Center, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM

1993-1991 Statistician (Biology), Migratory Birds Research, Patuxent Wildlife Research Center, Laurel, MD

1993-1990 Instructor, Department of Statistics, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC

Professional Interests

Sampling and estimation problems in biological populations. Animal population demography and monitoring. As a member of the University Statistics Center, I have collaborated with hundreds of faculty, students and staff at New Mexico State University.

Recent Awards

2005 Distinguished Award for Graduate Teaching/Advisement by the Honor Society of Agriculture, Gamma Sigma Delta.

2005-2003 Member, Teaching Academy, New Mexico State University

