

Richard N. Arnold

College Professor, Agricultural Science Center at Farmington,
New Mexico State University

Office: 505-327-7757

Fax: 505-325-5246

Email: riarnold@nmsu.edu

Education

1980 M.S. Interdisciplinary in the Dept. of EPPWS, NMSU

1975 B.S. Agronomy, Crop Science, NMSU

Professional Experience

1976-1979 Experience: Technical Service Director for the Navajo Agricultural Products Industry, Farmington, New Mexico

1980-Present Assistant Professor, Pest Management Specialist, College Associate Professor, and College Professor, New Mexico State University ASC at Farmington, New Mexico

Primary Research Interests

Chemical weed control in crops grown in northwestern New Mexico; revegetation of pipeline right-of-way and/or well sites with selected cool and warm season cultivars, and forbes for palatability, stand establishment, and erosion control in the intermountain region of northwestern New Mexico; the use of coal-bed methane produced water for grassland establishment in the San Juan oil and gas producing basin in northwestern New Mexico

Professional Activities and Honors (last 6 years)

2000-Present Four Corners Weed Committee

2002-Present Bureau of Land Management Farmington Field Office, Weeds Committee

2002-Present Bureau of Land Management Farmington Field Office, San Juan Oil and Gas Steering Committee

2002 Western Society of Weed Science- Student Contest Judge

2004 Bureau of Land Management Farmington Field Office, Four Corners Oil and Gas Conference, Leadership in Well Seeding and Produced Water Studies

2004 New Mexico State University Department of Agronomy and Horticulture and Superintendents of the New Mexico State University Agricultural Science Centers, Staff appreciation for outstanding work in bringing the oil/gas industry, cattle producers and Bureau of Land Management to work together for the amelioration of rangelands

2006 Western Society of Weed Science, Outstanding Weed Scientist of the Public Sector